

KUMAR FOOD INDUSTRIES LIMITED

INSIDER TRADING POLICY

Kumar Food Industries Limited (the “Company”) is a public company whose equity shares are listed on Metropolitan Stock Exchange of India Limited (MSEI) and subject to the rules and regulations issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI).

The Board of Directors of the Company has adopted this Insider Trading Policy (the “Policy”) to comply with the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“SEBI Regulations”).

The SEBI Regulations prohibit an Insider from Trading in the securities of a company listed on any stock exchange on the basis of any unpublished price sensitive information.

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (“UPSI”) means any information, which relates directly or indirectly, to the Company or its securities, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the securities of the Company.

“Generally available” information means information that is accessible to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis.

UPSI includes, without limitation, information relating to the following:

- i. Financial results, financial condition, projections or forecasts of the Company;
- ii. Dividends (both interim and final);
- iii. Change in capital structure;
- iv. Mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, de-listings, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions;
- v. Changes in the Board of Directors or Key Managerial Personnel; and
- vi. Material events in accordance with the listing agreement.

This Policy applies to directors, officers, employees and consultants who receive or are aware of Material, Non-Public Information (as defined below) regarding (1) the Company and (2) any other company with publicly-traded securities, including the Company’s customers, joint-venture or strategic partners, vendors and suppliers (“business partners”), obtained in the course of employment by or in association with the Company. This Policy also applies to any person who receives Material, Non-Public Information from an insider. The people to whom this Policy applies are referred to in this Policy as “insiders.” All insiders must comply strictly with this Policy.

The Company reserves the right to amend or rescind this Policy or any portion of it at any time and to adopt different policies and procedures at any time. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Policy and any other materials distributed by the Company, this Policy shall govern. If a law conflicts with this Policy, you must comply with the law.

1. OBJECTIVES:

The Company is committed to:

- i) Preserving the confidentiality and preventing misuse of any unpublished price sensitive information about the Company or any of its securities;
- ii) Adherence to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders of the Company; and
- iii) Strict compliance with applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Board of India.

The objective of this Insider Trading Policy is to set out the standards, and regulate and/or monitor compliance of Insider Trading Regulations of the Company by all “Insiders” and “Connected Persons” and their responsibility to preserve and maintain confidentiality of unpublished price sensitive information that may or is expected to affect the price of securities of the Company.

2. DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATIONS

A. “BOARD” means Board of Directors of Kumar Food Industries Limited.

B. “POLICY” means this Policy of Internal Procedures and Conduct for regulating, monitoring and reporting of trading by insiders of Kumar Food Industries Limited also referred to as ‘Insider Trading Code 2015’.

C. MATERIAL, NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION

1. What Information is “Material”?

It is not possible to define all categories of material information. However, information should be regarded as material if there is a substantial likelihood that it would be considered important to an investor in making an investment decision regarding the purchase or sale of the Company’s securities. Information that is likely to affect the price of a company’s securities (whether positive or negative) is almost always material. It is also important to remember that either positive or negative information may be material.

While it may be difficult under this standard to determine whether particular information is material, there are various categories of information that are particularly sensitive and, as a general rule, should always be considered material information. Common examples of material information include:

- Unpublished financial results (annual, quarterly or otherwise);
- Unpublished projections of future earnings or losses;

- News of a pending or proposed merger;
- News of a significant acquisition or a sale of significant assets;
- Impending announcements of bankruptcy or financial liquidity problems;
- Gain or loss of a substantial customer or supplier;
- Changes in the Company's distribution or dividend policy;
- Stock splits;
- Changes in the Company's or its subsidiaries' credit ratings;
- New equity or debt offerings;
- Significant developments in litigation or regulatory proceedings; and
- Changes in management.

The above list is for illustration purposes only. If securities transactions become the subject of scrutiny, they will be viewed after-the-fact and with the benefit of hindsight. Therefore, before engaging in any securities transaction, you should consider carefully how the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and others might view your transaction in hindsight and with all of the facts disclosed.

2. What Information is "Non-Public"?

Information is "non-public" if it has not been previously disclosed to the general public and is otherwise not generally available to the investing public. In order for information to be considered "public," it must be widely disseminated in a manner making it generally available to the investing public and the investing public must have had time to absorb the information fully. Generally, one should allow two full Trading Days following publication as a reasonable waiting period before information is deemed to be public.

D. COMPLIANCE OFFICER

means Company Secretary or such other Senior Officer designated by the Board, who is financially literate and is capable of appreciating requirements for legal and regulatory compliance under SEBI regulations and who shall be responsible for compliance of policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of unpublished price sensitive information, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Insider Trading Code of the Company under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors of the Company.

- (b) Trades pursuant to a Trading Plan set up in accordance with these Rules.

5. TRADING WINDOW

- 1) The Compliance Officer shall notify a ‘trading window’ during which the Designated Persons may Trade in the Company’s securities after securing pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in accordance with these Rules.
- 2) Designated Persons shall not Trade in the Company’s securities when the trading window is closed.
- 3) The trading window shall generally be closed for all Insiders between the twentieth day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after disclosure of such financial results.
- 4) Additionally, the trading window shall be closed in particular for a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI, for such periods as determined by the Compliance Officer.
- 5) The trading window may be re-opened after closure, not earlier than 48 hours after the UPSI in question becomes generally available.

6. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADING

- 1) Designated Persons may Trade in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open, after obtaining approval of the Compliance Officer by submitting an application as per Annexure 1 and an undertaking as per Annexure 2.

- 2) The Compliance Officer shall not approve any proposed Trade by Designated Person if the Compliance Officer determines that such Designated Person is in possession of UPSI even though the trading window is open.
- 3) The Compliance Officer may, after being satisfied that the application and undertaking are true and accurate, approve Trading by a Designated Person, on the condition that the Trade so approved shall be executed within seven trading days following the date of approval.
- 4) The Designated Person shall, within two days of the execution of the Trade, submit the details of such Trade to the Compliance Officer as per Annexure 3. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed in the said form.
- 5) If the pre-cleared Trade is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the Designated Person must secure pre-clearance of the transaction again.
- 6) A Designated Person who Trades in securities without complying with the preclearance procedure as envisaged in these Rules or gives false undertakings and/or makes misrepresentations in the undertakings executed by him/her while complying with the pre-clearance procedure shall be subjected to the penalties as envisaged in these Rules.
- 7) Nothing in this rule shall apply to any Trade involving a value less than Rs 5 Lakhs or such other amount as may be specified by the Board of Directors from time to time (a “de minimis Trade”) provided the Designated Person is not in possession of UPSI while executing the de minimis Trade.
